Lent Coffee Morning, Tuesday 13th May

9.00am-12 noon, Old Schools', Hatherleigh

As we enter into the season of Lent, Shrove Tuesday provides an opportunity to celebrate the abundance that we have – families, friends, homes, employment, clothes and food (including pancakes!). As we do so, we are aware of the many who are homeless and in need of the basics of life. Therefore, for our Lent Coffee morning, the Parish Church is supporting the work of St Petrock's, Exeter. St Petrock's is a charity in central Exeter who have been caring for the homeless and vulnerably housed for over 20 years by providing a range of emergency, support, and prevention services, and have supported over 8,200 individuals into accommodation. Sadly, their work is needed as much now as when they first started. Any offers of support through donations of baking or raffle prizes would be greatly welcomed. Please contact Mrs Sandy Flack (01837 810 314; sandra47flack@btinternet.com) Otherwise, please do come along and support by enjoying a cuppa and some cake!

A Service of Celebration:
Giving Thanks for a Decade of Working Together

You are warmly invited to join Rev. Ruth, Paul, Brendan and Krysty Hansford at their last service in Devon before moving to their new home in Wales. They have got to know so many people in their time here and would love the opportunity to see you before they leave. There will be a 'Tea Party' in the Methodist Chapel after the service to which everyone is invited. Our grateful thanks to the Methodist Chapel for providing a venue, as the Community Centre will be occupied by King Arthur and his knights and Old Schools might be a little squashed. If anyone is able to bring contributions for the tea, that would be greatly appreciated (Ruth and Paul are not sure what the removal men will have packed by then, so will be limited in what they can do).

Everyone is Welcome!!
